Thoughts For A New Year

To understand God's love, reflect a few moments on the following thoughts:

- God loves me as if no one else existed.
- His love for me is beyond description.
- He knew me and loved me before He created anything.
- I am important to God; therefore, He sent His Son to live and die for me.
- He made me His dwelling place on earth at Baptism.
- He nourishes my soul with His own Body and Blood in the Eucharist.
- God dwells in me and longingly waits for my expressions of love.

Thoughts of Our Blessings For a New Year

Real Life Examples

of How Rosaries are Desired

- 1.) A man in Zambia knotted a tree bark into a Rosary so it could be blessed by a priest and used for praying the Rosary. Unfortunately this Rosary did not last very long.
- 2.) When a tidal wave left 10,000 people homeless in Papua New Guinea all during the crisis many people were begging for Rosaries and Bibles and their faith was the main force that sustained them during the crisis.
- 3.) One day on EWTN a program showed the severe lack of Rosaries in Russia after the fall of Communism when people were free to worship God again. The program showed a big crowd standing in line in a Catholic church for their turn to use a Rosary to pray. The Rosary, when not in use would be hanging on the wall of the church for those people who could not find or afford to buy one for themselves.
- 4.) Some members of Our Lady's Rosary Makers received a letter telling of an island in the Pacific where there was only one Rosary. The people on the island placed the Rosary over the hands of a statue of our Blessed Mother which stood in the fork of a path on the island. Each Islander would stop, take the Rosary, pray the beads and then carefully place it over Mary's hands, so the next passerby could use it too.

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH GROUP

Youth Group resumes this Sunday with a glimpse at "Life Beyond High School". A few of our recent graduates will be on hand to talk about the challenges of leaving home, college and how the Catholic faith plays into their lives as college students. You won't want to miss it!

ICYC packets will go home with high school students this weekend, so parents please discuss this with your teens SOON. The registration deadline is January 23. The cost is $70 or $80 including the optional event t-shirt.
