Thoughts ~

From the Magnificat Lenten Companion

- Prayer puts God's plan first
- Fasting whittles away our perverse sense of "what I deserve".
- Almsgiving puts us at the service of the other—"mine" becomes "yours."
- Jesus' command to be overly generous in forgiving those who have hurt us deeply is really an invitation to freedom.
- ...the act of forgiveness always unbinds and sets free our own hearts as nothing else can.

MAILING ADDRESS CHANGED

The post office is not happy with me-although I've tried! Everyone, please note that our new mailing address for the parish office and for personal mail to Fr. Brad Neely is: "625 Lake Street". —NOT— 318 South B St. Last year the phone book offices were notified and it is hoped it will be corrected in the next book. The new address is also listed on the front of all bulletins.

This week’s featured book is entitled ‘This Side of the Resurrection’ by: Mary Jo Tully. The Rev. Eugene Laverdiere, SSS; Senior Editor, Emmanuel Magazine, gives the following statement regarding this booklet:

“Mary Jo Tully brings the Passion story of the Gospels to life in the twentieth-century America. Her meditations on the Stations are sensitive to the social challenges of our day as well as to the more personal issues.”
