St. Catherine Laboure’
And the Miraculous
Medal

In Paris, on the night of July 18, 1830, a 24 year old novice of the Daughters of Charity was awakened by her guardian angel, in the form of a beautiful child. The novice, who would later be known to us as Saint Catherine Laboure’, heard the tiny angel softly says, “Come to the chapel; the Blessed Virgin is waiting for you.”

As they entered the chapel, Catherine saw that it was brilliantly lit with candles, as if for Midnight Mass. She was led into the sanctuary and knelt by a chair. Soon after, Our Lady entered and sat down in the chair. Our Lady spoke to Catherine, “My child, the good God wishes to entrust you with a mission.” She then told Catherine that her mission would be made known to her in the future.

Catherine’s mission was revealed to her on November 27, 1830. While attending afternoon prayers, she was visited by the Virgin Mary again. Catherine learned that she was to introduce the medal of the Immaculate Conception to the world.

On that glorious day, the Blessed Virgin appeared in a vision. At one point during the apparition, the Virgin Mary stood on a globe with a serpent beneath her feet. Her arms were outstretched. An oval shape framed the Blessed Virgin, and on it were written these words in gold: “O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.” This was to be the front of the medal to be made.

Then, the vision revolved to reveal the reverse side of the medal. Catherine saw a cross with a bar at its feet that was intertwined with the letter. Beneath the letters were the hearts of Jesus and Mary, both surmounted by flames of love, one having a crown of thorns and the other pierced with a sword. Encircling all of this were 12 stars around the oval frame.

Catherine heard the voice tell her, “Have a medal struck after this model. All who carry this medal will receive great favors....Favors will abound if this medal is worn with devotion.” St. Catherine Laboure’ now knew that her mission was to ensure that this “Miraculous Medal” was made, and to spread our Blessed Mother’s message of love and compassion for all God’s people.
