Seminarian's Thank You's

Fr. Neely & the Parishioners of Sts. Peter & Paul,

I was greatly surprised when I found your package today. Everything inside was very practical for this very morning I had run out of paper. Thus your gifts are to be well used. The people of Grangeville are very kind and I hope to be your Pastor some day. I leave you a passage from Saint Ambrose, concerning the healing power of the Good Samaritan, who is Christ. For he heals through the Sacrament of Confession.

"He binds the wounds with a rigid law, the softens them with remission of sins (with oil), and also he stings them with the threat of judgment."

Take care that you all remain strong,

Joseph Lustig, Ave Maria, FL

“Catholic Families ~ Catholic Homes”

Deacon George Canney from St. Mary's Parish in Moscow, has initiated a new, supportive program for young Catholic families. It's called Catholic Families, Catholic Homes (CFCH). He'll be meeting w/ those interested on January 12, 2012 at 6:30 p.m. in the new Catholic Education Center at St. Mary's Parish in Cottonwood. This is directly across the road from Prairie Middle School. Parents are welcome to bring their babies if need be. This is definitely a welcome support group for parents in their efforts to minister to their children from day one! CFCH works directly with parents to infuse Catholic faith traditions into their daily, weekly lives. It offers general information, but also a growing library of resources loaned at no charge to participating parents and children focusing on Catholic teachings and sound values. Please plan to attend. If questions please call Marilyn Wimer 983-2625.
