Vocation "Thank You" Masses

These Masses will be complimentary by the parishes and will be rotated into the weekday Masses. The people for whom the Masses are being prayed are people who were involved in the Spring "Vocation Recognition Program" and are a thank you for all their hard work and involvement.

Note to Those On
The Masses Serving List

With our new parish priest, Father Mariusz Majewski arriving for his first weekend Masses here at SPP Parish, it is extremely important that everyone makes sure they show up to serve their various designated positions and times. PLEASE do not figure "someone will do it". If you cannot attend to your designated time, please be sure to call a substitute. Our parish should not leave our priests waiting for assigned positions to be filled at the weekend Masses.

Thank you to everyone who is so diligent and willing to serve Our Lord at His great sacrifice for us.

( Welcome! )

Father Mariusz Majewski

You are warmly welcomed, Father, to your new home and parish. We are blessed to have you here with us and we thank Our Lord for sending you to us. We pray you will be happy here.

Parish Picnic ~ Welcoming Fr. Majewski
Sunday ~ July 8th ~ 1pm

Everyone is invited. Parishioners A—R are asked to bring salads and S—Z bring desserts. Please bring your own lawn chairs and table service. Hamburgers and hotdogs will be furnished as well as beverages.

Let's meet and greet our new parish priest.

We think it is ready, for it sparkles!

Thank you to Nancy Asker, Donna Forsman and Barbara Frei for all their work in cleaning the Rectory for the arrival of Father Majewski.

In addition, thanks to Carol Yalbuw, Mary Kaschmitter & Alexanderia Rockwell for their assistance.

The Wanderer

~ National Catholic Weekly founded in 1867 is available in the vestibule and is free to you. Each week we receive more issues. Please take one and enjoy the articles. This is a trial offer gift to our parish.

NOTICE: The parish is in need of a SACRISTAN for the 8am Mass on Sunday morning. The Sacristan prepares for the celebration of the Mass, which is a great help to Father. The training takes just about 20 minutes and you would be serving just one time a month. Please consider serving our Lord and assisting Father in this need. You must be committed to attend on your assigned weekend. If you need to be gone, substitutes or other Sacristans are happy to trade weekends. Call Sheryl Ann at the parish office – 983-0403. Please consider.

Fortnight for Freedom:

~~~ finishing on ~ July 4

“These days of special prayers will give our Church and Catholics the strength to stand up against this attack on our religious freedom. If we don't stand up now, there will be more losses of religious freedoms down the line —guaranteed.”

...Fr. Mitch Pacwa (EWTN)

Quotes from Cardinal Timothy M. Dolan

Archbishop of New York & President of USCCB
...(KC's Columbia Magazine)

**“It is a question of evangelization. Do we Catholics practice the faith we are working so hard to defend?” What about its more difficult teachings, especially the one that exhorts us to love our enemies?”

**...there are Catholics at every level of government, and our faith has helped define our culture. This is no accident; it is the result of our countrymen struggling through the years to live up to the ideals set forth in the Declaration. What part of it are we willing to give up? And what will be the Catholic culture we hand down to the next generation?

**The tide is turning, and Catholics must remain vigilant. Obviously, America has hardly reached the point where Christians must practice the bare-bones, survivalist (yet inspiring!) form of our faith that the Jesuit missionaries encountered in Japan. But when we consider the persecution our Church has endured under various regimes throughout the ages, we know enough to realize that things can get ominous, and fast.
