Solemnity of the Most Body & Blood of Christ "Corpus Christi" Sunday

Commemorating the Last Supper, Holy Thursday is the "Eucharistic Feast." In its liturgical setting, however, it could not bear the devotional practices that piety required in its love for the Body of Christ, nor could it adequately allow for the joy that wanted expression, given the sorrowful mysteries of Holy Thursday and good Friday. Hence, there was a movement that began in twelfth-century Belgium for a special feast to honor the Blessed Sacrament. It was Pope Urban IV who first established the feast, and, most notable, commissioned the great Dominican scholar, Thomas Aquinas, to compose liturgical texts for it.

Eucharistic Processions: This was an early element in Corpus Christi devotions, emphasizing Christ's real Eucharistic presence. The Blessed Sacrament was carried through the town after Mass on its feast day (beneath its festive "ombrellino," or canopy). These processions came to include a version of the Roman "stations": stops at various points and, with Eucharist exposed on a simple altar, a sung Gospel passage, hymn, harvest blessing, and benediction.

The Infiorata: "Carpet of Flowers" is a monastic tradition hundreds of years old, honoring the Blessed Sacrament. There was a custom of strewing flowers in the path of the Eucharistic procession on the feast of Corpus Christi. From this practice evolved the art of designing panels made with flowers depicting religious themes and scenes for use on Corpus Christi.

Coming June 28th

Fr. Mariusz's Father / Son Hike will be Saturday, June 28th. We will gather at SPPP at 10:15am and hike the Fish Creek Loop with a stop for lunch at the cabin. All ages welcome.
