Feast Day of Sts. Peter & Paul
June 29

The Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, or the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, is a liturgical feast in honor of the martyrdom in Rome of the apostles Saint Peter and Saint Paul, which is observed on 29 June. The celebration is of ancient origin, the date selected being the anniversary either of their death or of the translation of their relics.

First Friday Adoration Cancelled—July 4th

You can still pop in for a few minutes and thank God and our Military for your freedoms.

THESE COLORS DON'T RUN

It's the Soldier,
not the reporter who has given us the Freedom of the Press.

It's the Soldier,
not the poet, who has given us
the Freedom of Speech.

It's the Soldier,
not the politicians who ensures
our right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.
It's the Soldier who salutes the flag, who serves beneath the flag, and whose coffin is draped by the flag.

Happy Birthday ~ U.S.A.

No, Freedom Isn't Free

I watched the flag pass by one day,
it fluttered in the breeze.

A young Marine saluted it, and then he stood at ease.
I looked at him in uniform so young, so tall and proud,
with hair cut square and eyes alert
he'd stand out in any crowd.

It thought how many men like him had fallen through the years, how many died on foreign soil,
how many mothers' tears?

How many pilots' plane shot down?
How many died at sea?

How many foxholes were soldiers' graves?

No, Freedom Isn't Free

I heard the sound of Taps one night,
when everything was still, I listened to the bugler play
and felt a sudden chill.

I wondered just how many times
that Taps had meant “Amen”,
when a flag had draped a coffin of a brother or a friend.
I thought of all the children of the mothers and the wives,
of fathers, sons and husbands

with interrupted lives.

I thought about a graveyard at the bottom of the sea.
Of unmarked graves in Arlington.

No, Freedom Isn't Free
