Abortion and Contraception

"It is noteworthy that as acceptance and use of contraception have increased in our society, so have acceptance and use of abortion. Couples who unintentionally conceive a child while using contraception are far more likely to resort to abortion than others. Tragically, our society has fallen into a mentality that views children as a burden and invites many to consider abortion as a "backup" to contraceptive failure. This is most obvious in efforts to promote as "emergency contraception" drugs that really act as early abortifacients.

"With Pope John Paul II we affirm that contraception and abortion are "specifically different evils," because only "the latter destroys the life of a human being," but that they are also related (The Gospel of Life, no. 13). It is important to remember that means that are referred to as "contraceptive" are, in reality, sometimes also abortifacient. An end to abortion will not come from contraceptive campaigns but from a deeper understanding of our human sexuality, and of human life, as sacred gifts deserving our careful stewardship" (2001: US Bishops' Pastoral Plan for Pro-life Activities: A Campaign in Support of Life).

REDISCOVERING CATHOLICISM

~ Matthew Kelly

We have become too comfortably a part of the modern secular culture, and this comfort has resulted in a dangerous complacency toward the life-giving words of the Gospel. Too often, we listen to these words but do not allow them to penetrate our hearts and transform our lives. There is something ultimately attractive about men and women striving to become all that God created them to be. It is this striving that we need to rediscover as a Church.

The first Christians were not perfect; nor were the saints. They lived in communities that were torn by strife in ways remarkably similar to what we are experiencing today, and they struggled with the brokenness of their own humanity in the same way you and I do. But they were dedicated to the basics

The first Christians intrigued the people of their time. So did the saints and so do ordinary people who embrace the Christian life today. In the great majority of cases they don't do anything spectacular. For the most part they commit themselves to doing simple things spectacularly well and with great love, and that intrigues people. We need to intrigue the people of our time in the same ways.

Whom does your life intrigue? Not with spectacular accomplishments, but simply by the way you live, love, and work.

If we live and love the way the Gospel invites us to, we will intrigue people. Respect and cherish your spouse and children, and people will be intrigued. Work hard and pay attention to the details of your work, and you will intrigue people. Go out of your way to help those in need, people will be intrigued. When we do what is right even if it comes at a great cost to ourselves, people are intrigued. Patience, kindness, humility, gratitude, thoughtfulness, generosity, courage and forgiveness are all intriguing.

PARISH IS FAMILY ✦ CHURCH IS HOME

COMING IN AUGUST

Before the beginning of the Mass, an MC will present to the parish the following:

- * a sincere Welcome to all visitors and parishioners
- * the introduction of a visiting priest on occasion of this need
- * any needed event or announcement
- * during Mass they will come forward and read:
The "Responsorial Psalm"
The "Prayers of the Faithful"

The reason for the Welcome, Prayers of the Faithful and Responsorial Psalm being lead by the MC is that all three of these are verbal interactions with responses from the congregation.

Obviously, we will need volunteers for this, as it will be a ministry all its own.

- Assigned Lectors for their weekend Mass cannot be used as an MC at their assigned Mass, as they are specified for the "Word of God"...only.
- The written information will be provided and placed on the Ambo for the MC. This correct part of our Liturgy is already being done in our other prairie parishes.

LECTORS, PLEASE WATCH THE AUGUST BULLETIN AND BULLETIN BOARD FOR YOUR ASSIGNED WEEKEND MASS TO SERVE AS "MC" BEFORE MASS.

Our first weekend Masses for the new ministry of MC's will be next weekend on Aug. 1st and 2nd. Thank you to our volunteers and present Lectors for assisting with this ministry.

Next weekend:

5:30pm ~ Judy Salisbury

8:00am ~ Rachel Chmelick

147 Days To Christmas!

Your Parish Support ~ Last Weekend ~ $2,774

$3,808 needed weekly

Where is your heart's treasure? Is it Jesus?
