2016 Idaho Catholic Appeal

Goal: $30,679

Amount Received To Date: $21,541
$ 9,138 is still due from our parish.

*This is an on-going diocesan request.
You still have time to do your part.*

A “non-donor” list from our Diocese indicated that 69% of our 228 parish families have yet to gift to this appeal. If these families would gift just $58.00 per family, our parish could meet the assigned goal. Please consider being a part of your parish and give. Our parish is assessed for the amount not met. ICA envelopes are still on the vestibule table, or pop your gift in the collection marked “ICA”. Thank you for your help to meet this goal which assists our Idaho Catholic Church to be there for Idaho’s parishes’ needs.

A THEOLOGY OF A HOLY DOOR

Oh why do the words come so hard today?
As I sit here to pray.
As we enter into the Lenten Season.
Reflection, and praying should be a wonderful reason.

As I gazed upon the Stations of the Cross and see the Agony in your Blessed Son’s face.
A time that happened ho so long ago in a far away place.

Oh why do the words come so hard today?
As I sit here trying to pray.
When I love and Adore you, and ask for your guiding hand.

I look around and see the beauty that was created by your command.
Give me the strength and wisdom and grace,
So that one day I can see your loving face.

Oh why do the words come so hard today?
As I sit here trying to pray.
Let me be there in kindness in a time of need,
when we are in despair to those who lust for greed,.

When I am feeling low and bleak
Give me your strength when I am weak.
Oh why do the words come so hard today?
As I sit here trying to pray.
—Lenore Hill
