November: A Month to Focus on Gratitude

This article from ICSC November 2015 e-Bulletin

November brings raking leaves, mid-term exams, plenty of football, and the beginning of our Christmas plans. But for those in the U.S., November's highlight is that great national holiday, Thanksgiving. It's wonderful to have a day to call attention to the need for gratitude, but this holiday also reminds the Christian steward that every day should include thanksgiving because gratitude is essential to discipleship. Feeling a deep appreciation for the giftedness of our lives can't be confined to one holiday when we spend a few minutes around a laden table remembering our many blessings. Neither can gratitude become a rote response.

Gratitude is good for our spiritual lives in so many ways. It reminds us of our neediness before the Lord, without whom we have nothing. The mere daily act of focusing on our blessings makes us more mindful, more present to God's mystery and gifts, and more aware of the needs of others around us. Gratitude is best achieved by daily, focused attention. So perhaps a good exercise for November would be to write down, each day, some things for which we are truly grateful. Your list will no doubt include people – a teacher who inspired you, a coach who believed in you, an aunt who made you feel special, an employer who mentored you. Your notes might include simple things – the aroma of freshly ground coffee, a lunch invitation that brightened your day, a phone call that brought a smile. Focus on things you sometimes take for granted – the warm home in which you live, the sunshine that peeked through a cloudy day, the bright redness of a leaf on the lawn, the faithful presence of your spouse. And during this month of thanks, remember to give thanks to the risen Lord:

Let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. (Colossians 3:15-17).

"Basics of the Catholic Faith" Tenth Class– Mary & the Saints

For God to become man, save us from death and share his life with us, a woman had to say "Yes". Mary did this. Becoming the Mother of God, she became the mother of all those who would become part of Jesus' Body, the Church. She is the mother of every human being. All that the Church teaches about Mary takes its meaning in relation to Jesus. As Mother of God "she far surpasses all creatures, both in heaven and on earth". (Vat. II) She goes before us, nurtures us and shows the way.

THANK YOU'S....

A big thank you to the Perez, Ramirez & Rojas family for all the work they did in the church for All Saints and All Souls Day to be displayed through the month of November. The church looks awesome with all the saint 'to help pray for us.' Please take the time to look at the saints pictured in the church and then go research them to find out what their message is." Jana Frei Environment Chair

Last week we missed our organist Karel Wemhoff, the Sunday Morning choir would like to extend an acknowledgement and thank you for her presences and music ability. We also would like to include her family in this appreciation. Thank you for all you do to help celebrate the Mass with wonderful music. The Sunday Morning Choir.
