Summer Fun

St. John XXIII, is remembered by many for his warmth, simplicity, social conscience and sense of humor.

Pope Francis, recalled his predecessor as being holy, patient and a man of courage, especially by calling the Second Vatican Council.

"He was a man who let himself be guided by the Lord," Pope Francis has said.

But the Italian Pope John was also guided by his cheerful disposition, his simple, peasant background and tongue-in-cheek, wisecracking Italian culture.

Here's a look at some of this saint's funny quips:

Visiting a hospital, he asked a boy what he wanted to be when he grew up. The boy said either a policeman or a pope. "I would go in for the police if I were you," the pope said. "Anyone can become a pope, look at me!"

He once wrote: "There are three ways to face ruin: women, gambling and farming. My father chose the most boring one."
