Angels

Heavenly beings, sexless, of a fixed population, who neither marry or are given in marriage (Mk 12.25); distinct from saints (which human beings may become); mentioned nearly 300 times in the Bible. Following are the nine choirs (classes) of angels, listed in ascending order, named according to their traditionally assigned duties. (see Col. 1:16; Rm. 8:37)

Archangels: Chief angels, mentioned twice in the New Testament (Jude 5: 9, 1 Thess. 4:16) as distinct from guardian angels; they are messengers from God in significant matters.

Principalities: Carrying scepters with which they direct God's commands. With archangels and angels they are the heavenly multitude that is in God's ordinary and immediate service in what pertains to the visible world. It was said that countries would be assigned to certain principalities.

Powers: Shown with swords, so-called because of their special power in restraining the assault of the evil spirit.

Virtues: Charged with dispensing celestial miracles and accomplishing stupendous works.

Dominations: In royal robes and crowned, for their authority; movers of stars and planets.

Thrones: In a kneeling posture of adoration; in (Ps 9:4), "You have upheld the justice of my cause from the Thrones where I sit as righteous judge."

Cherubim: (Plural of cherub) Angels of wisdom, guardians and protectors, stationed at Eden (Gn 3:24), erected in gold on the Ark of the Covenant (Ex 25:18), bore Yahweh to the rescue of David (2 Sam. 22:11). Picture four-eyed, blue-winged, and presenting a book, representative of their great knowledge.

Seraphim: (plural of seraph, "to burn") Shown with six red wings and eyes; highest, named for the seraphim of (Is 6:2) Distinguished by their burning zeal and love for the Trinity

CHANGE IN TIME

Of the 6th — 8th grade Religious Ed Class
Parents and students decided to have Religious Education classes for our Jr. High students on the First Saturday of each month from 1:30pm to 5:30pm. The class will begin in the Church with prayer, and later after class, end in the Church.
(NOTE: Oct. 13 will be class due to conflicts)

Thank You Mrs. Theresa Frei

...for coming forward and offering to teach our precious 1st & 2nd grade Religious Ed students their most important faith and love of Jesus. God bless you.

Thank You for All Your Prayers

We wish to thank everyone for their prayers for our baby boy, Francisco, who was born with heart problems. His surgeries have gone well and he is home now with us. He is still somewhat fragile and prayers are still welcome. Again we thank you all.
