LENT BEGINS THIS WEEK

"Even now, says the lord, return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning: rend your hearts, not your garments, and return to the Lord, your God. For gracious and merciful is He, slow to anger, rich in kindness, and relenting in punishment. Perhaps he will again relent and leave behind him a blessing, offerings and libations for the Lord, your God."
...Joel 2: 12-18

THE LITTLE BLACK BOOKS

The parish has again provided 50 "Little Black Books" for 6 minute a day Lenten meditations. It is hoped that you will read the short meditation everyday to enhance your Lenten experience and faith. Many people enjoy and benefit from "The Little Black Book".

"...the Spirit calls, and waits for the slightest response from the abyss, that is, from the human heart."

...Magnificat

"Rediscover Catholicism"

(The FREE book given you by our KC's.)

"Our contribution on a local, national, and global scale remains phenomenal even in spite of our faults, inefficiencies, and recent scandals, and yet the Church is despised by millions of ordinary Americans, while most Catholics want to crawl under the table when people start talking about the church in a social setting. We have forgotten our story and as a result we allow the anti-Catholic segments of the media to distort our story on a daily basis.

The tragedy continues on another level as well. It is disturbing that at a time when millions of Catholics are angry and disillusioned with the Church there has been no significant effort to remind Catholics of who we really are, no strategic effort to raise our morale among Catholics, no organized effort to remind the world that, for the past two thousand years, wherever you find Catholics, you find a group of people making enormous contributions to the local, national, and international community.

Beyond our national and global impact, the local contribution Catholics make in every community on a daily basis is nothing short of remarkable.In Chicago there are hundreds of Catholic organizations that serve the needs of the people of that city. One of those organizations is Catholic Charities. This year the local chapter of Catholic Charities in Chicago will provide 2.2 million free meals to the hungry and the needy in that area. That's 6,027 meals a day—just one small example of our enormous contribution. Every city has a hundred stories like this one."

Book Comment

Thank you for the book, Knights of Columbus! I just keep turning the pages of Matthew Kelly's Rediscover Catholicism and finding that I have to keep reading. It is a great gift!
