Lenten Inspiration "Gethsemane" (Oil Press)

† The sufferings of the soul of Christ resulted chiefly from four causes. The first cause was the clear knowledge the Savior had of all the pains He had to endure in His natural body, in His sacramental body, and in His mystic body. Add to this the foreknowledge of all the wrong and ignominy He was to suffer in His sacramental body through the various sins against the Blessed Sacrament, of all the persecutions and outrages which would be heaped upon His mystic body, the holy Church and from the scandalous lives of many Catholics.

† The second cause, the conduct of His ungrateful disciples was to the Redeemer a source of untold sadness. In ages to come, the example of these ingrates will be followed by millions of Christians after they shall have reaped the abundance of His benefits, after they shall have been freed, through His precious Blood, from the thralldom of Satan and nourished with His own sacred flesh.

† The third cause was the painful knowledge that all His struggles and sufferings would be wasted on innumerable souls. Hear His plaint in the words of Isaias, the prophet: "I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength without cause and in vain."

† The fourth cause the sadness of Jesus when He beheld the sins of the entire world. The soul of Christ saw, clearly and distinctly, not only the entire series of sins, from the disobedience of our first parents down to the desolations of dooms-day, but also all the malice, all the abomination, the revolt, the contempt, the dark ingratitude contained in each and every sin. Even when we recognize the wrong done to Almighty God by our sins, we take it little to heart, because we love Him so little. A God sweats blood for our sins, and we never shed a tear.

Diocesan Pledge Campaign ~ Although this is the usual time for our Idaho Catholic Appeal, it is not being conducted in 2013 in its usual format. The decision was made to incorporate the 2013 ICA into the campaign goal. ICA will return during its normal timeframe in 2014. This means there will be no separate solicitation for the 2013 ICA.

*ICA Goal=$32,711 + Campaign goal = $166,882
 Equaling a total for our parish of $199,953*

Parishioners can indicate on their pledge card that they want this pledge to go directly towards the ICA and when they do make a pledge for the campaign, they can send in another pledge card or just send in a check made out to the Idaho Catholic Foundation with all information.

March 9-10, 2013 Catholic Relief Services ~ We are asked to take up the Catholic Relief Services Collection. This collection helps to fund six Catholic organizations that assist disadvantaged people overseas. Your gift will support agricultural development, create food sustainability, provide invaluable life skills to those seeking a better life, provide health care and clean water to communities, and supply humanitarian relief to areas devastated by natural disaster. By helping the marginalized and impoverished, you give hope to millions of people throughout the world.

SERVERS Needed for Holy Week

We ask that people who serve Our Lord at the liturgies to begin to consider the Holy Week needs of Liturgy assistance. Please consider signing up when the list appears on the vestibule board.
