Church Bells Update

First it had to be determined how and where the bell would be installed. The church roof is not built to hold a heavy bell, so types of bell towers are being researched.

We are still accepting donations and memorials toward the expense of purchasing and installing a new church bell for our parish church. Plans are in process. It is hoped to have it all done by the Fall. Interested in assisting financially, please place your gift in an envelope and mark it as Church Bells. Pray for the accomplishment of this musical addition to our parish church.

Welcome to our new Lector ~ Linda Uhlenkott. She is happy to sub for Lectors in July and August, if needed. Linda will be assigned as Lector on Saturday evening Mass starting Sept.. Thank you Linda for coming forward to serve Our Lord.
