LEGEND HAS IT...

...that ladybugs are an European symbol of good luck. They received their names centuries ago in Europe when farmers found aphids invading their grapevines. Prayers to the Virgin Mary for help were answered when thousands of little red beetles appeared and ate the aphids. The farmers named their helpful beetles in honor of Mary, also known as "Our Lady."
