Now, Where Is That Sheet They Gave Me?

Have you perused the sheet that was handed out at Mass this past couple weeks? It is suggesting ways that our parish adults can help with our parish youth. Remember the future of our Catholic Church is in the children and youth of our parish. All the teachers giving of their time to your children are volunteers, maybe you could assist just once. Do you have a child in youth ministry this year? Even if you don't, would you help the future church and especially your children to draw closer to their Savior-Jesus? Please pray and help in some small way.

Welcome Fr. Gibson

From: "Food For The Poor"

Food For The Poor (FFP), the largest International relief and development organization in the nation, does much more than simply feed the millions of hungry poor in 17 countries of the Caribbean and Latin America. We provide emergency relief assistance, clean water, medicines, educational materials, homes, support for orphans and the aged, skills training and micro-enterprise development assistance, with more than 95% of all donations going directly to programs for the poor. Let us be generous in our outreach to those most in need!"

Fr. Gibson will be here next weekend to celebrate Masses and acquaint you with Food For the Poor.

Music Scholarship Available at Saints Peter & Paul School

New for this school year is the Ed & Gwen Schwehr Memorial Music Scholarship. This scholarship covers the instructor and book fees for a Sts. Peter & Paul School student to receive private music lessons (piano, voice or guitar) at Saints Peter & Paul School for the 2014-2015 school year. Ed and Gwen were parishioners from 1978, until Ed's death in 1992 and Gwen's move, back to North Dakota in 2003. Gwen sang in the choir and Ed taught his children, "He who sings once, prays twice." Applications are available at the SPPS office, Mon., Tues, or Wed. 9 – 12 or 1 – 3. Students apply.

History of Sts. Peter & Paul Church

A Missionary Era

From 1883 to 1892, Jesuit fathers Alexander Diomedi, Fr. Aloysius Soer and Fr. A. Morvillo served the area of Keuterville, Cottonwood, Mount Idaho, Grangeville, and the Salmon Rover mines.

According to the archives of St. Gertrude's Monastery, a church was built at Grangeville in 1886 which burned in 1893. No other source substantiates this statement.

Mount Idaho was only four miles from Grangeville and the priest seems to have administered the two places together. In Mount Idaho the first services were held in someone's home and usually 15 or 20 people would be present. Mrs. L.P. Brown later recalled hearing Father Soer tell how he prayed that he might not get lost (and did get lost), had nothing with him but a sandwich to eat, yet pulled the saddle off his horse and slept soundly. Sometimes he passed days without eating at all. He liked to travel at night when it was cool because he thought he would pray better then, too. On one occasion he had supper with the Browns before starting for Florence. Mass was said under great difficulties at times. There were no candles to be procured. Once the people took containers of grease and put strings through them and then lit the ends to replace candles during the Holy Sacrifice.

In 1890 Father Soer was in charge of Lapwai and its missions at Mount Idaho and Grangeville. At that time Grangeville had six Catholic families and services once a year. Nearby Mount Idaho had four families and services three times a year.

REMINDER TO PARENTS & Little Ones

Parish trees are being stressed, flowers in the gardens are too. Decorative white rocks are being mixed with red rocks, and walking on large borders seems to continue.

May we please ask or beg parents of small children to be aware that these areas are NOT playgrounds ....for the safety of the little ones, for our church gardens and keeping their beautiful appearance and complying with our diocesan insurance company. These plants and areas are costly and some are donated as well as the work of planting and caring for them. We will keep asking for your help.
