Catholic Catechism # 2225

“Through the grace of the sacrament of marriage, parents receive the responsibility and privilege of evangelizing their children. Parents should initiate their children at an early age into the mysteries of the faith of which they are the “first heralds” for their children. They should associate them from their tenderest years with the life of the Church. A wholesome family life can foster interior dispositions that are a genuine preparation for a living faith and remain a support for it throughout one’s life.”

SAINT PETER CLAVER

A native of Catalonia, Spain, Peter joined the Jesuits in 1601 and was ordained in Cartagena (now in Colombia), the chief slave market of South America. Ten thousand African slaves arrived in the port very month. Peter was there to meet the ships. He entered the holds filled with the smell of rotting flesh, bearing food and medicines, brandy and sweets. “We must speak to them with our hands,” he said, “before we try to speak to them with our lips.” With the aid of interpreters and illustrations of Christ’s life, Peter taught the brutalized slaves about the mercy of God. In thirty-three years, he instructed and baptized over 300,000 slaves. He died in 1654.

Think

A minister waited in line to have his car filled with gas just before a long holiday weekend. The attendant worked quickly, but there were many cars ahead of him. Finally, the attendant motioned him toward a vacant pump. "Reverend," said the young man, "I'm so sorry about the delay. It seems as if everyone waits until the last minute to get ready for a long trip." The minister chuckled, "I know what you mean. It's the same in my business."
