Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

“The Magi set out because of a deep desire which prompted them to leave everything and begin a journey. It was as though they had always been waiting for that star” (Pope Benedict XVI).

Our response to the Father’s offer of salvation is that of the Magi: “To offer gold is to proclaim Christ’s kingship, to offer incense is to adore His Godhead, and to offer myrrh is to acknowledge His mortality” (St. Odilo of Cluny).

Creation responds as well: “When the King of heaven was born, the heavens knew that He was God because they immediately sent forth a star; the sea knew Him because it allowed him to walk upon it; the earth knew Him because it trembled when He died; the sun knew Him because it hid the rays of its light” (St. Gregory the Great.)

The manifestation of the Son of God to the world begs belief from us by which we will be led home by another way. ...Magnificat

Prayer For Religious Liberty

O GOD OUR CREATOR, from your provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. You have called us as your people and given us the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God, and your Son, Jesus Christ.

Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of this world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society. We ask you to bless us and our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty.

Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our vows heard on behalf of the right of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, and with every trial withstood and every danger overcome for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us in this great land will always be “one nation under God indivisible with liberty and justice for all”. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. ...USCCB 2012 (EWTN)
