2015 Idaho Catholic Appeal

Goal: $30,445

Amount Received To Date: $21,491
$8,954 still due from our parish.

This is an on-going diocesan request.
You still have time to do your part.

A “non-donor” list from our Diocese indicated that 54% of our 225 parish families have yet to gift to this appeal. If these families would gift just $74.00 per family, our parish could meet the assigned goal. Please consider being a part of your parish and give. Our parish is assessed for the amount not met.

ICA envelopes are still on the vestibule table, or pop your gift in the collection marked “ICA”. Thank you for your help to meet this goal which assists our Idaho Catholic Church to be there for Idaho's parishes' needs.

Talk to God

Pope St. John Paul II Thought prayer was so important that he dedicated a year to the Rosary. Pope Benedict XVI directed these beautiful words to Americans during his visit in 2008: “Contemplation of the mysteries of the Rosary release all their saving power, and it conforms, unites and consecrates us to Jesus Christ.”

Pope Francis, since his election, has spoken of prayer, too. “The Christian life is not limited to prayer, but requires an ongoing dedication and courage born of prayer,” he tweeted during World Youth Day Rio 2013.

Palms

The Catholic faithful use palm branches at Mass on Palm Sunday and then bring them home for devotional purposes. Palm Sunday is the popular name for the Sunday before Easter, though its full title is “Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion.” Two Gospel passages are proclaimed at Mass that day: One tells of people waving branches or spreading cloaks to welcome Jesus in triumph into Jerusalem, and the other tells of His passion and death. Any branches may be used in the liturgy, but parishes usually provide palm branches, as mentioned in John's gospel (12:13). The faithful hold them at the beginning of the Mass for the blessing and procession. Palm branches appear in religious art as a symbol of martyrdom. in the Book of Revelation (7:9), a great multitude praises God with palm branches in hand.
