GENTLE REMINDERS

We must remind our parishioners again, to please gently lower and raise our kneelers. The repair because of dropping and raising roughly continues.

Please be gentle in replacing our missal/hymnals in the pew book holders, as the holders are also breaking. Thank you for your help.

Some deep scratches and gouges are still appearing on the seats of our pews. We think this must be coming from clothes worn to church. It is thought that hard prongs and rhinestones on jeans is causing this issue. Would you, please, help us to address this? We would like our pews to serve us for many more years to come.

The two back pews on each side of the church are to remain for use by parents with infants and toddlers. Parents are closer to the cry room/ vestibule which enables parents to use the cry room to comfort and quiet their fussing babies.

JESUS WAS A BABY TOO

“It is a life at conception. In Luke you find: “Jesus was like unto us in all things except sin.”

Our Lady said “Be it done to me according to thy word.” At that moment was the conception of Jesus, the Incarnate Word lives among us.”

“When you say NO—I will not serve (Our Lord), is when the devil rejoices.”
