National Life Chain Sunday October 4, 2015 / 2pm to 3:30pm

Please join our local Life Chain to pray for the protection of the unborn children in America. Nearly 4,000 lives are taken every day through abortion. You can make a difference to stand for the millions of aborted children whose blood has been spilled out on this land. Pray for God's forgiveness for our nation. Stand, hold a sign and pray. Meet at Heritage Square on Main Street. Questions call Angela Riener at 208-451-4715.

Notification to Our Parish Family: Our Sts. Peter & Paul Parish Council has made the decision to sell the Robert Wisdom house that was recently purchased. We are in the process of organizing with the Diocese to accomplish this, at this time.

Sunday Morning Rosary Leaders: Sheryl apologizes to Mrs. Donna Kopczynski and Mrs. Donna Kaschmitter for typing the wrong last name in the past bulletins. We thank Mrs. Kopczynski for her ministry of leading our Sunday morning Rosary. We also thank Mrs. Kaschmitter for her willingness to sub as a Eucharistic Minister. God's blessings. (The parish could still use 3 more Leaders.)

September Food Bank Weekend Results: Thank you so very much for the 114 pounds and $100 cash to feed our hungry brothers and sisters. 135 individuals were served as well as 2 homeless families in August.

2015 World Meeting of Families, “Love is Our Mission– the Family Fully Alive,” addresses Catholic family issues from a global context. Archbishop Charles Chaput points out that the theme is inspired by the words of the early Church Father, St. Irenaeus, who said that “the glory of God is man fully alive.” “In like manner,” the Archbishop says, “the glory of men and women is their capacity to love as God loves. And rarely can that love be lived out more intimately and fruitfully than in the family. Every moment of every day, a mother and father are teaching and guiding each other and their children, while witnessing about their love to the world beyond their home. The structure of marriage-if lived faithfully- naturally points a man and woman outward toward the world, as well as inward toward one another and their children. As Augustine once said: ‘To be faithful in little things is a big thing.’ Simply by living their vocation, a husband and wife become the most important living cell of society. It’s within the intimate community of the family that a son knows he is loved and has value. In observing her parents, a daughter first learns basic values like loyalty, honesty and selfless concern for others, which build up the character of the wider society. Truth is always most persuasive, not when we read about it in a book or hear about it in a class room, but when we see it incarnated in the actions of our parents.

A REALLY EARLY HEADS UP ! Ladies and Gents of our wonderful parish, this is a reminder to you all that the success of our annual parish Christmas Bazaar, which this year will occur on December 5th, depends on the talents, time and treasures of our parishioners. So if you are “crafty” this reminder will give you time to create. Others, this will give you time to think something up that is grand! ☺ Funds gleaned from this event always benefit the needs of our parish and church.

LET'S PLAY!

Pinochle Marathon will begin in October! Anyone interested please contact Michelle Green by September 26. (983)-7239 or markmichellegreen@msn.com

Coffee Hours Coming in October
Call Andrea Howe ~ chairlady ~ 507-0772 ~ to offer and enjoy a turn at our winter parish coffee hours. Andrea has the keys for entry and will explain the simple process. Coffee, donuts and chatting will start in October.

Parish Library:
The Secretaries are happy to open the library at anytime between 9am-4:30pm for you, so feel free to call or drop in to the parish office. We are trying to have it open during coffee hours this winter.
