May is the month of Our Blessed Mother

The month of May is the "month which the piety of the faithful has especially dedicated to Our Blessed Lady," and it is the occasion for a
"moving tribute of faith and love which Catholics in every part of the world [pay] to the Queen of Heaven. During this month Christians, both in church and in the privacy of the home, offer up to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in great abundance”

(Paul VI: Encyclical on the Month of May, no. 1).

Save the Date: Calling all Catholic Men – the 19th Inland Northwest Catholic Men’s Retreat retreat will feature Dr. Tom Curran as our Retreat Master (You can hear Dr. Tom on Sacred Heart radio – 970 AM – from 8-9 am each weekend morning). Please reserve these dates of your calendar now.

Our monthly Food Drive is always the First Sunday of the month.

When do we bow to the tabernacle?

The issue is reverence: You know it when you see it. An elderly priest would topple over if he tried to genuflect, but you can feel the adoration in his bow, in the inclination of his head, and the prayerful holding of this position for a second or two. And even though the altar stands between him and the tabernacle, he knows the altar is only a symbol of Jesus. As he adores the one real Jesus of his life, he knows the consecrated host in the tabernacle is the reality.

Our bishops have recommended to each of us a bow of the head as our common and shared reverence before we receive the consecrated host or the Precious Blood. But there are bows, and then there are bows. As you receive Holy Communion, follow that elderly priest’s lead: Try not to hurry it. Reverence, which is a sublime courtesy, is also a matter of feeling and atmosphere that can fill the church just as really as the fragrance of incense.

PROVERBS 24: 11-12 ~ “Rescue those being led away to death; hold back those staggering toward slaughter. If you say, ‘But we knew nothing about this,’ does not He who weighs the heart perceive it?
Does not He who guards your life know it? Will He not repay everyone according to what they have done?”

Saturday
May 7, 2016
