CYO service project is gathering things for the Health and Rehab Nursing Home in Grangeville. A laundry basket is in the vestibule for donations. Throw blankets/afghans, fragrant lotions, stationery, packages of individual wrapped candy for residents to give away (they love to feel as though they are able to give a small gift, especially to children, when they receive visitors, and candies are their favored choice for this), craft kits (preferably multiple of the same type of craft so that residents can do the same craft at the same time), small pillows (the size that would fit perfectly behind a neck or underneath an elbow), skeins of yarn for the residents to crochet or knit, chap stick, small reading lights, soft, fluffy socks, sudoku or word puzzle books.
