*May is the month to honor Mary, our Mother. Please join in the parish rosary which begins at 9:30 a.m. before Sunday Mass. The rosary is meditation on the life of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Each mystery is an insight to the story of salvation.

“Both Saint Bernard and Saint Bonaventure say that the Queen of Heaven is certainly no less grateful and conscientious than gracious and well-mannered people of this world. Just as she excels in all other perfections, she surpasses us all in the virtue of gratitude; so she would never let us honor her with love and respect without repaying us one hundred fold. Saint Bonaventure says that Mary will greet us with grace if we greet her with the Hail Mary.”
